ARE YOU A CIGAR STORE INDIAN? HEARST THINKS AND SAYS YOU ARE

We are going to impress on parents the folly of interrupting a child's sleep. THERE IS NOTHING MORE STUPID ON EARTH THAN GET-TING A CHILD UP TOO EARLY. That one question is more important than the Trusts. For it is clear that our problems have got to be solved by the CHILDREN. Our grown men won't do it-at leas; not until they are hungrier than now and kicked harder and more often than now.

With the exception of the American cigar store Indian, the thing that feels a kick least in this world seems to be a haughty American CITIZEN .- From Hearst's paper to-day.

Castellane in Appeal Declares that if Divorce Is Granted He Will Be a Ruined Man-Sure Wife Would Return if Free to Act.

PARIS, Nov. 8 .- As an offset to the riot of money enjoyed by Count Castellane, the creditors of Boni, who are suing to get $540,000 due them, declared at the hearing of the case in court to-day that the extravagance was not all on the Count's side.

Maitre Millerand, of counsel for the creditors, ridiculed the attempts of opposing counsel to depict Countess Anna as living in a state of powerty. The Count, he asserted, had not squandered all her money. The Countess should pay her share of the extravagances.

In a single month she had spent $120,000. The ceiling of her bedroom cost $160,000, with the furniture to match.

Among the other "extravagances" mentioned by counsel were $200. 000 for jewels, $21,233 for horses, $29,800 for automobiles, $14,000 for Carolus Duran's portrait of the Countess, and so on.

The bills in the present case include judgments against the Count." There is a bill from a dressmaker for dresses and money advanced. amounting to $98,235, another for $23,200, and another for $15,370.
